

Important Information

CPD Guidelines

Please review the 2017 Continuing Professional Development guidelines for each accreditation. These can be found on the ESSA website, at ESSA Professional Development Centre > CPD Points Guidelines.

Categories

All of your claimable CPD activities must fit with the below categories:

Category 1: Presenting and Publication

Category 2: Further Education

Category 3: Self Education

Category 4: Community Service

Each category has a break up of applicable activities. Each activity lists

- which accreditation the activity is applicable for
- how many points are claimable
- what evidence you need to attach to the logbook

Scope of Practice

Subject material for each activity must be within your applicable accreditations Scope of Practice. All scope of practices can be found on the ESSA website at ESSA > ESSA & You.

Presenters Qualifications

ESSA will accept any PD presented by anyone who meets the below qualifications in line with their presentation topic. If the presenter/s do not hold the relevant qualifications/experience, ESSA reserves the right to not accept the applicable CPD Points earned for the PD.

- An ESSA accredited person, who presents within their SoP
- A recognised qualification* relevant for the activity they are presenting on
- A minimum of an AQF level 7 qualified allied health professional with experience in exercise (e.g. exercise physiologist, physiotherapist, cardiac care nurse, occupational therapist, doctor, clinical nurse consultant)
- A state, national or international level sports coach
- An Australian Strength and Conditioning Association (ASCA) level 2 or 3 coach
- A Pilates professional with a minimum of level 3 qualifications. Please refer to ESSA's Pilates based Professional Development Guidelines \(individuals\) for all presenter requirements for any Pilates based PD undertaken.

*A qualification recognised or endorsed by a regulating authority such as a national association.

ESSA's policy for Pilates based Professional Development Guidelines for Accredited Persons

The exercise scientist and exercise physiologist are well placed to cater to the full spectrum of the Pilates Method, and are trained to assess a client to determine their place on this continuum. The skills and knowledge gained through university exercise science study are ideal for understanding how to progress a client through the stages of physical conditioning.

To earn/claim CPD points for any instructive* Pilates professional development, the presenter must meet the below requirements. Evidence of the required qualifications must be provided with your required certificate evidence (please refer to the CPD logbook for certificate evidence requirements).

These qualifications are not applicable for Pilates research and evidence* based professional development.

Minimum Qualifications

The minimum qualification standards for the presenter of any Pilates Professional Development, in an effort to maintain cross-disciplinary standards of educational content and competency, are a minimum level 3 Pilates professionals as per the definition of terms below.

- To deliver a Mat class – Level 3 teacher
- To deliver a Workshop and Short Course – Level 4 teacher
- To deliver Comprehensive Teacher Training Courses – Principal Trainer

Definitions

Level 3 Teacher

- Successful completion of a Comprehensive Pilates Teacher Training Program
- 3,500-5,000 hours of Pilates teaching experience

Level 4 Teacher

- Successful completion of a Comprehensive Pilates Teacher Training Program
- Over 7,000 hours of Pilates teaching experience

Principal Trainer

- Successful completion of a Comprehensive Pilates Teacher Training Program
- 10,000+ hours of Pilates teacher experience
- Cert IV in Workplace Training and Assessment
- minimum of 5 years teaching experience delivering Pilates education to allied health professionals

Non-for profit professional associations

In Australia there are only two industry accepted “not for profit” associations for Pilates professionals. They are the Australian Pilates Method Association (APMA) and Pilates Alliance Australasia (PAA).

The Australian Pilates Method Association (APMA)

PO Box 135, Hurstbridge VIC 3099

www.australianpilates.asn.au

Pilates Alliance of Australasia (PAA)

PO Box 42, Cremorne Junction, NSW 2090

www.pilatesalliance.net

It is important to note that some private, for profit, training organizations offer levels of training of levels 1-4, which do not equate to the levels of membership from the not for profit professional associations.

*Definition of Instructive Courses v Research and evidence:

Instructive Course – If any instruction on how to perform or teach Pilates is provided within the professional development

Research and evidence – Using evidence and researched data only. Nil instruction on how to perform or teach Pilates is within the professional development.

Acknowledgement: ESSA would like to thank Elizabeth Hewett and Donna Oliver for their valuable contributions to the creation of this policy.
